

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

GENEALOGIES.

As lack of space forbade the insertion of every family that has lived in town, or a continuous and complete genealogy of any family, the principles that have been adopted in our selection have been two, namely: first, giving the preference to the early settlers, when the necessary material could be gathered, and the families longest resident in town, and second, after any family has left town to tell where the members go, and then drop them unless settling in surrounding towns, or there is some good reason for following them down to the present time. Accordingly some families, having descendants living in town during nearly its entire history, necessarily occupy considerable space, while others need only a few lines. We are sorry not to be able to give a record of more of the families of the early settlers, especially those who were prominent in the management of the affairs of the town from time to time. But as it was then purely voluntary on the part of families whether or not the family records should be inserted in the books of the town, many neglected to do it, and consequently material for a complete genealogy is wanting.

Limited space has also prevented any going into details in the matter of personal or family history, and therefore we have been content to give concisely and connectedly the links of lineage. As far as it has been possible we have given all names and dates in full. It is a source of regret that this could not be done in every case. Brief biographical sketches of a few will be found in their proper place in volume I, page 267-96.

Every family has been given in alphabetical order, and the members of each have been numbered consecutively from one to the end. Numbers in heavy faced type, as 7, indicate that that person's name is to be found again further on with a record of his family, the same number appearing in parentheses, as (7). Such numbers are also arranged consecutively, as (7), (10), (20), etc. The different generations are distinguished by "superiors," as James¹, John², Peter³, etc. The older generations naturally come first in the record, following each other in regular order. The list of abbreviations appended below, with the exception of those representing titles and states, are only used in the genealogies.

The names of members of the families are fully indexed, giving their consecutive number, rendering it easy for the reader to find the particular name desired. All other names, as of husbands, wives, etc., of the different members are also fully indexed, followed by number of family with which connected in Roman letters, and consecutive number of the given family, separated by a period, as LVII. 10. In a few cases, however, notably in the Knox family, the reception of additional information after the indexes of names had been made and verified, and sometimes up to the time of printing, necessitated the use of letters in connection with the usual numbers, to the great saving of unnecessary labor.

Cross references are indicated by the family and "consecutive" number separated by a period in a parenthesis following the name, as (LXXXIX. 17). By referring to the family of such name and the given number, the genealogical status of such individual can readily be found.

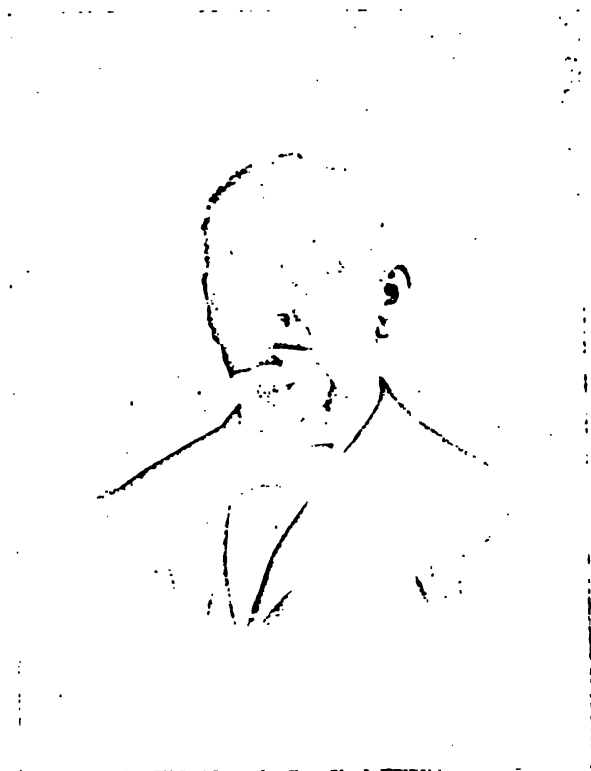

In the preparation of these family genealogies no pains has been spared to make the different records authentic. We have availed ourselves of all the sources of information at our command. Town records have been searched, families visited for original information as found in the "Old Family Bible," and reliable memories, and for verification, inscriptions of tombstones copied, published genealogies searched, and many persons interviewed. Where there has been any conflict in records we have endeavored to settle the matter by weight of evidence. That errors in dates, and possibly names, have crept in is almost certain. We have striven to make them as few as possible. Not a little is due to Hon. Trueworthy L. Fowler for the accuracy and completeness of many of the older families, especially the Head and Cochran families. The Lake and Sargent families are chiefly his work. J. B. Haselton, Esq., of Suncook, has given the Haseltine family careful revision. State Assayer S. P. Sharples,* 13 Broad Street, Boston, Mass., has rendered very valuable service for the Kimball family, F. A. Hutchinson, of Suffield, Conn., for the Hutchinson family, Levi Cofren, Esq., of Boston, Mass., for much information respecting his branch of the Cochran family, and Miss Harriet W. Noyes of Hampstead, for the earlier generations of the Noyes family. Others have also rendered valuable assistance. We are also indebted to Dow's History of Hampton for early information of the Dearborn family. For all such favors to one and all we make grateful acknowledgment. We would also express hearty thanks for the uniform courtesy shown by the different families in our personal solicitation for facts of memory and record to give greater completeness to family histories, and for the cheerful readiness to aid as far as in their power. A very few families who failed to furnish the desired information as requested have been necessarily omitted.

* Mr. Sharples, with his co-laborer, Hon. Leonard A. Morrison, has nearly ready for the press an exhaustive genealogy of the Kimball family of New England.

LXXVI. THE KNOX FAMILY.

Robert, Robert, James, and John appended their names to a memorial dated 26 Mar. 1718, addressed to Gov. Shute of Massachusetts from the North of Ireland, asking for encouragement to emigrate.

1. Timothy¹ from whom the Pembroke family traces its descent, was in the direct line of Rev. John Knox, who came to America and settled at Lancaster, Mass. After living there several years, he was the first one of the name to come to ancient Suncook, having bought in 1732 a right in the township, drawing Lot No. 7, first division, and later, Lot No. 4, second division. The next year William, from Haverhill, Mass., bought the right of Solomon Keyes, Lot No. 23, in the south part of Suncook, now mostly in Hooksett, and settled on it. He drew Lot No. 13, second division, and afterwards sold it to John Fife who settled on it. He had two sons, William and David, who after their father's death divided the farm between them. In 1781, David sold out and went to Tunbridge, Vt., and in 1787, William, having previously married Anna Buntin of Allenstown, sold and went away. No descendants of either are now in town. The father was probably brother, or cousin, of Timothy. It is probable that three of Timothy's children were baptized in Lancaster. He d. in 1748. The number of his children is unknown, but among them were the following:

II.

This family originated in Andover, Mass., and it is almost certain that it belongs to the same branch as the above, though the connection has not been traced.

When the proprietors of Suncook voted to build a ferry boat in 1737, the boat was to be kept "against Mr. Joseph Parker's house lot." The ferry was established at Lot No. 14, and hence we learn that Joseph Parker owned and probably lived on Lot No. 14 in that year. About 1760, Eleazer Allen deeded to Joseph Parker, probably the same man, Lot No. 20 in the fourth range. Joseph Parker, 8 May 1776, deeded the land bought of Allen to James Knox. About 1791, his son John bought wild land at North Pembroke on the seventh range, built a log house on it, and lived in it with his father, till he afterwards built part of the house where Thomas R. Holt now lives. Joseph came to Pembroke from Andover, Mass., and was one of the earliest settlers. He may have had other children besides John, Molly, and Dorcas. The Joseph¹ and Joseph² given below were probably his grandfather and father, though the fact is not established to a certainty.

CXIV. THE ROBERTSON FAMILY.

The first of the family of which we have any knowledge is William. In 1748, Noah Johnson deeded to him the land now owned by Frank P. Cheney and Mary Kimball. In 1750, William deeded the part now owned by Mary Kimball to his son Thomas. In 1764, he deeded half of the remainder to his son Andrew, and in 1787, the rest of it to Andrew. In 1777, Thomas deeded all his land to Lemuel Stickney. In 1810, Andrew deeded his farm to his son Andrew. In 1812, Andrew Jr. deeded the same farm to Benjamin G. Boardman. In 1760, John deeded to John Bragg a farm now owned in part by Mr. Swain, the same lot that Noah Johnson deeded away in 1750. This John might have been a brother of William, or a son, and brother of Thomas and Andrew. Dea. James was probably a brother also.

Nov. 1745, at a proprietors' meeting, he was chosen a member of the proprietors' and auditing committee; 20 Nov. 1746, moderator, and one of the proprietors' committee; was one of the petitioners to the Governor of Massachusetts, and a few years later, to the Governor of New Hampshire, for protection from the Indians. Mar. 1769, he deeded to Joshua Tyler Lots Nos. 56 and 57, deeded to him by Job Abbott, 11 June 1751. On 7 Feb. 1781, he deeded to Thomas Brickett "one third part of the land on which I now liveth," which was one third of 30 acres from the easterly end of Lot No. 43, first division of Suncook lots, deeded to him in 1751 by Nathan Mann. This deed was signed by Moses Tyler and Miriam Tyler, his wife, both making their mark, and witnessed by Richard Bartlett, justice of the peace, and Moses Tyler, Jr., and duly acknowledged before Mr. Bartlett. The price paid for this land was 240 "silver dollars." On 19 Apr. 1775, Joshua and Reuben Tyler deeded to James Head 23 acres bought of Ebenezer Frye, and Apr. 1772, Nehemiah McNeal deeded to Moses

V. THE MCFARLAND FAMILY.

1. Andrew¹ was b. in Scotland, but owing to troubles there fled to Londonderry, Ireland, whence he emigrated to America, landing at Boston, Mass., ab. 1718-22; m. ab. 1722, Bettie Christy; res. Rowley, Mass., and Concord, Mass., as early as 1729, as shown by the following evidence: Josiah Jones of Concord, Mass., "husbandman," 9 Dec. 1729 in consideration of "£25 passable money" deeded to "Andrew McFarland of said Concord, husbandman," all his right, etc., in the Suncook land grant of the "Great and General Court" of Massachusetts, on both sides of the Merrimack river, "to the men of Capt. Lovel's command on his march to Pigwaket (Me.), said Josiah being one of these men."

Later he went to Londonderry, and afterwards to Suncook as early as 1737. He voted there on the right of Josiah Jones in the matter of settling Rev. Aaron Whittemore, and the controversy with the town of Bow. By a deed dated 27 Apr. 1745, "Andrew McFarland of Bow" conveyed to "Moses Tyler of Chester" his "house lot of 40 acres in the Right of Josiah Jones laid out by name of Suncook, with all the fences and improvements" and that on the same day "Moses Tyler of Chester" conveyed to "Andrew McFarland formerly of Bow" a tract of 80 acres of land in Chester "situated S. E. of Great Massebesic Pond in the Right of Col. Richard Kent." This was evidently an exchange of farms. Other deeds, 1754-66, show land transactions in Chester of Andrew McFarland, and his sons, Jesse and John, situated at or near Massabesic brook, one of them where "it empties into the Great Pond."

On 25 Feb. 1768, Andrew and his wife Margaret deeded to Stephen Merrill 50 acres of land in Chester. In 1778, "Andrew McFarland of Chester, N. H., Yeoman," conveyed to "Samuel Allison of Londonderry, gentleman," a tract of 60 acres in Chester for £150, with warranty, no wife signing, she presumably having previously died.

Andrew McFarland was moderator of a church meeting in Chester, 12 Mar. 1750. The names of four of his sons, Jesse, Moses, John, and James, are appended to various petitions in Chester, 1764, 1771, 1773, 1796, respectively. His wife came to America with him on the same ship, and they were married soon after their arrival. Ch last five b. in Suncook:

2. Janet¹ b. 12 Nov. 1726 in Rowley, Mass.; m. ab. 1746-7, Capt. Samuel Allison of Londonderry; res. Londonderry; d. 16 Oct. 1809 in Weathersfield, Vt.; 12 ch.*

MARRIAGES IN PEMBROKE, 1739—1895.

We have sought to make the list of marriages more valuable, by giving as far as possible the name of the person solemnizing them, arranging chronologically under each, and generally, so far as practicable. We are unable to verify the fact as to Rev. Messrs. Whittemore and Emery, as they left no list, so we say probably, because they occurred during their pastorates.
